FACTS & QUESTIONS

Will my event take place in a private room at the restaurant?

There are no dedicated private dining rooms at El Rio Grande. Smaller events are booked on a semi-private basis. Full buyouts of one side (or the entire restaurant) are available for large parties.

Is there a separate buyout fee to close the restaurant?

Our pricing is structured as a package price which includes the value of the business lost by closing to the public, based on day/date/time of the event, as well as the cost of food and beverage arranged for the event, as determined by the number of anticipated guests, and ultimately menu selections.

Can I use my own vendors?

Absolutely. In the interest of personalizing your event, we welcome outside vendors, including music, florist, lighting, photography and videography. Alternatively, we are happy to share vendors with who we've worked successfully in the past. All vendors must carry the required insurance that is stipulated in our contracts.

Do you provide vendor meals?

Vendor meals (i.e. for musicians, DJ, photographer, etc.) working with your event are to be requested 1 week prior to the event date and are an additional charge. The meal includes the chef's choice of hot entrée and non-alcoholic beverages.

Is transportation readily available for my guests?

Taxis are available on Third Avenue. The restaurant is easily accessible by the 4,5, and 6 trains and is a short walk from Grand Central Station.

Is there parking available for my guests?

Parking garages are conveniently located nearby, including Icon Parking (560 Third Ave and 155 E 38th St).

When can I drop off items to be used for my event (i.e. seating cards, favors, etc.)?

One day prior to the event date, to be coordinated with the Event Director.

Does El Rio Grande offer Glatt Kosher Meals or Catering?

Is the bar open all night?
